

Journal of the Research Institute for Old Japanese Manuscripts of Buddhist Scriptures

Vol. IV March, 2019

---

CONTENTS

NOBUMI IYANAGA: Spirit Possession Rituals in India, China and Japan: An Invitation into the Study of Texts of “Mixed Esotericism”

NAOKI NAKANO: On the old kunten glossing method found in the Kōsōden (Memoirs of Eminent Monks): An example of Japanese renderings seen in Chinese biographical materials

TENSHO MIYAZAKI: The Relations among the Three Kinds of the Old Buddhist Manuscripts in the Japanese Collection and Woodblock Print
Canons: With Reference to the Puchao Sanmei Jing

NAOKI NAKANO: Katsura Dainagon 桂大納言 (Fujiwara no Mitsuyori 藤原光頼) And the Glosses of the Kōsōden 高僧傳 Text in the Iwaya-ji 岩屋寺 Collection

---

International College for Postgraduate Buddhist Studies Research Institute for Old Japanese Manuscripts of Buddhist Scriptures